

Career of the week

Click here to watch videos

Search
this career on Unifrog!

Human Resources (HR) Manager

Entry routes:

You'll usually need human resources (HR) experience, and an HND or degree in HR management, business management or a related subject. Some companies have general management or HR graduate training schemes.

HR average salary:
£49,000-66,000

Working hours: You'll work 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday. You may sometimes have to work extra hours to meet deadlines.

UK growth: -1%, a decrease in 25,076 jobs from 2020-2035

West Midlands growth:
-4%, an decrease of 788 jobs from 2020-2035

Character virtues

respectful, responsible, compassionate

Key words

leading, organisation, employee relations, staff, training, welfare, recruitment, policies